Welcome to 909 S. 25th Street, a one-of-a-kind Graduate Hospital residence offering exceptional width, abundant natural light, and over 400 square feet of private outdoor space. Situated on an extra-deep lot, this meticulously maintained, move-in ready home delivers the square footage and functionality often found in larger three-story properties while maintaining the convenience of a thoughtfully designed two-story layout. The repointed brick façade, built-in planters, custom iron railing and 8-foot craftsman style front door add curb appeal while inside a sun-filled living and dining space with soaring 11-foot ceilings, oversized windows, and wide-plank white oak flooring create an airy, open feel. As a wide end-row home, the property enjoys additional windows and natural light rarely found in traditional Philadelphia rowhomes. A conveniently tucked-away powder room and generous dining area make the space equally suited for everyday living and entertaining. The designer kitchen is both stylish and functional, featuring sleek acrylic-finished cabinetry, quartz countertops, a dramatic waterfall peninsula, cabinet depth French door refrigerator, pantry storage, a five-burner gas range,
